RG104 E-1 Box 126 Feb-June 1882

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., March 13th., 1882.

Dear Sir:

This will introduce to you Mr. Francis De Gress, who has the contract for manufacturing the nickel coinage required by the Government of Mexico, and who visits your Mint to witness your operations and to obtain information. I will thank you to afford Mr. De Gress all necessary information, and as he desires to obtain a competent machinist, please extend to him such aid as may be in your power to secure one.

Very respectfully

R. E. Preston

Acting Director.

Col. A. London Snowden,

Supt. Mint of the U. S.,

Philadelphia, Pa.
